DIVERTIMENTO
Europe: motion, emotion, imagination

PRESS ANNOUNCEMENT

EUROTHENTICA is the name of the eBook Collection that is devoted to design and deliver exceptional experiences at heritage places, revealing the cultural values and the authenticity of Europe.

With this eBook we have sought to look through a magnifying glass the authentic Italy, away off the beaten track, that is enriching the cultural experience with stories, myths and traditions. In front of myths, the starting point of the discovery, young and old are in the same mood.

Our purpose is to travel through a magnifying glass and look for a new experience and taste. Ten places in the south of Italy are filling the gap left by Goethe, who, shipping from Naples to Palermo, cut out of his Journey one of the most ancient parts of Italy, rich in history, heritage and culture.

In front of myths, the starting point of the discovery, young and old are in the same mood. Enriched with texts, pictures, animations and audiovisuals, our myths are deeply imaginary, as myths are. The red thread on our map leads to ten places in the South of Italy, the pearls in the necklace, connected in one journey, using fantasy as fuel.

EUROTHENTICA is calling for legendary journeys, memory places, cultural sensations, culinary discoveries, games and adventures. In the reign of the unexpected a brave, new world emerges at your fingertips.

Curiosity lifts the veil.
